What do you expect to be doing in ten years? I expect to have formed a strong foundation in my career field, striving to improve the technology field.

Advice that you would give to your fellow students: The way that you conduct yourself during high school can open up a world of positive opportunities. Be respectful to your peers and the adults around you. Doing so will pay off greatly and you will earn the respect of some very wonderful people. The effort you show and the attitude you possess will help you be successful in all of your endeavors.

Describe one memorable experience at FCHS: Working with technology coordinator, Marc Leighty, has been perhaps the best experience of my high school career. He has been open to the new ideas that I have introduced, as we have worked to improve the technology at FCHS. I am pursuing a career in the technology industry because of the skills I have learned, while working alongside Marc Leighty. It has been wonderful to work with such a great person; we have both learned a lot from one another.
